

For further information, visit kingscharcotmeeting.com
To book a place, please visit kingscharcot2020.eventbrite.co.uk

The Multidisciplinary and Surgical Management of the Diabetic Foot

June 22-23 , 2020

Glaziers Hall, London Bridge, London, UK

Directors: Prof. Venu Kavarthapu, Prof. Michael Edmonds

Confirmed Key Speakers:

Jonathan Valabhji, Luca Della Paolo, Nicolaas Schaper
Bob Frykberg, Alberto Piaggese

The program outline:

Full two-day educational agenda with plenary lectures, video demonstrations, case discussions, live debates and interactive Q&A sessions with international experts

Practical workshops on essential skills (dry bone surgical techniques, neurological and vascular examination, decision making, offloading, advanced wound care, bone biopsies, tenotomies, microbiology, radiology) and advanced Charcot foot surgical reconstruction techniques

Abstract submission deadline: 03 March 2020
For further information, visit kingscharcotmeeting.com

To book a place, please visit kingscharcot2020.eventbrite.co.uk

Additional Consultants' Cadaver Workshop

Charcot Midfoot and Hindfoot Reconstruction
24th June 2020
King's College London, Guy's Campus, London

Registration Fee details:

2-Day Symposium (June 22-23 ,2020)	Before 29 Feb 2020	From 01 March 2020
AHP's (Podiatrist, Nurses, ENP, Paramedics)	£140	£175
Trainee Physicians & Surgeons	£160	£200
Consultants & GPs	£225	£275
Cadaveric workshop + 2 day symposium June 22-24 , 2020 (limited places, consultant surgeons only)	£375	